

A time of great change!

November 25, 2008

In 2008 when everyone was saying it was going to be a year of “new beginnings, the Lord put into my spirit, that 2008 would be the “year of upholding.” I believe if we look back over this present year we have never needed God’s upholding hand as we did this year.

Our whole nation shook at its very core economically and politically, and the mantra began to spring up “change we can believe in”, or “we are the real mavericks” to bring about change. There is hunger in this nation for change. Many are looking to President- Elect Obama and the Democratic congress to bring this change about.

Our nation is in worse shape than anyone is even telling us. They can’t tell us the whole truth because there would be fear and panic everywhere if we knew the true state of the economy. There is a need for “change” in our nation, but it is not as most of our country and the church has understood.

Change is here! It may be not as you would like, but it is surely coming. The kingdom of God is invading this world like we have never seen before to bring about the final moments of the church age. Many in the Body of Christ are having this day come upon them, “as a thief in the night.” Many are not aware of the overlap of the 2nd and 3rd Prophetic day of the church.

The church has set its heart upon the pre-tribulation rapture, and the “great escape” that it is unable to stand even in the birth-bangs of these last days. Many Christians are becoming more and more lukewarm in our nation, and putting their 401K’s above the Kingdom of God. Many are so concerned on what they are going to eat or drink, or where they are going to live that the cares of the world are choking the very word of God out of their lives.

Thankfully, a change is here! I was not seeking a word for the New Year as I would normally try to listen for, but this year a word came to me speedily without asking. The word is “A time of great change.”

Evangelist Morris Cerullo always taught that all “truth is parallel.” What you see happening in the natural is what is happening in the spirit realm as well. We are in the midst of a “complete change” of governmental leadership. One party is being put out and another party is being put in. The party put out and its President is one of the lowest approval ratings of any administration in history. The administration to most Americans has become “out of touch” with the “real needs of the people.”

This is a type of the “present” leadership in the House of God. Most people go to church today out of obligation or duty and the Glory of the Lord is rarely seen in our meetings. The present church structure we have built is not causing the people to grow in the knowledge of God. It has made good “church” members but not many disciples. It has kept people living at the cross or the Holy Place, and not in the dwelling “presence” of the Lord in the Holy of Holies.

The present church leadership has grown “out of touch” with the Spirit of the Living God. They have put their faith in marketing surveys instead of the living God. So God is bringing a change now. Things can no longer be the same. The day of business as usual is truly over whether we like it or not. For the day is coming upon us unawares I am afraid.

There is a “governmental” change coming in the Kingdom of God and His church. A new leadership has arisen and is going to come into its place starting in 2009. The change of Presidency is a “peaceful” revolution of transferring of power. We give the reigns of the government to another man and another party to put forth the ideas they have in their heart to do. So will this spiritual change come about in the House of God to bring forth “God’s thoughts and plans” for these last days.

Our country is starving for new leadership and so is the church. The sad part in the natural realm we may be getting the leader that is just like us as Israel did when they cried out for a king to be like the other nations. Time will tell if that is so. Yet, the new administration is already moving from the far “left” agenda to a more centrist or moderate stand on the issues of the day. They are finding a place of more “common ground” with most Americans.

The new leadership God is raising up will not be like this at all. We have had the leadership we wanted for the last 50 years with a few exceptions. These “new leaders” will not be compromisers with the spirit of the world that has invaded the church. They will not bring in the “golden calves” of the world into the house of God. They will not bring in the money changes and lenders into the temple of the Holy Spirit. This new leadership will take the “whip of the Lord,” and drive them out of His House. They will burn with one vision that God Himself has, “my house shall be a House a Prayer for the nations.”

This new breed of leadership will be like Joshua and Caleb in the heart. They will believe that they are “well able” to go up at once and possess the land. They will not be afraid of the giants or the fortified walls they see. They will not be afraid of the faces of the people they lead, and they will not compromise as the present older leadership in the church as done.

They will take the whip of God and drive out the money changers who profit off the “anointing of God.” They will drive out the false doctrine of “seeker friendly” churches. They will drive out the false plans of a “two hour” service or less. They will drive out the false religion and false prophets in the house of God in the Spirit of Fire like Elijah. The zeal of the Lord’s house will burn within them.

They will bring forth the “change” that God desires to bring to His house. The change that these new leaders will bring will appear like fire, and remove the spots, wrinkles and blemishes that still remain in the house of God. They will be like ones “plucked out of the fire” as found in Zechariah chapter 3.

These new leaders will have no age distinction. They can be as young as 10 years old, or as old as 80, but the quality of the Spirit of God will be their portion. They will be men and woman “full of faith and full of the Holy Spirit.” This will be a new generation that will press on to know the Lord as found in Hosea chapter 6 verse 3.

“A time for change!” A time for change is upon us and we will never be the same. The day of King Saul’s reign in the household of God is coming to an end. The day of the Shepherds after His own heart has come. The day of David’s tabernacle will be truly restored to this generation that will seek Him.

Woe, to those who stand in the way of this change, for they shall find themselves fighting against God Himself. The old order must come down; the Holy Place can not be a recognized institution anymore blocking the true way into the Holy of Holies. Heb 9:8 (AMP).

“The restoration of the “heavenly priesthood” has begun. You shall once again become a “royal priesthood and a Holy Nation.” I am exposing the leaven in my house that has been leavening the whole lump. I am about to expose the true motives, plans and agenda of each persons heart by fire.

Who can endure the day of my coming? Who can stand when I appear as fire in your midst? My new ones, My own ones will be able to stand for they learned the secret of the fire of my Holiness. They have been prepared like Esther, for such a time as this.

I am once again going to shake the very foundation of my house so all that can be shaken will be removed so all that can’t be shaken will remain. Do not fret about what you are about to see in my house, because I am going to purify with the most intense flame you have ever seen or will see again.

For this day is going to burn like an “oven.” I told you it would be so, and it now is. It is my Holy Fire that is going to usher this “time of change.” Change as you have never known it before. This will not be a revival as you have known in the past. This will be the Day of Glory revealed in the midst of my people. This Glory is your portion, protection and way upward to the depth of my heart.

Will you allow me to change you, says the Spirit of God. Will you let go of all you have, all you have known, to find me with your whole heart. Will you let go of your “religious” idea of who I am? Will you allow me to bring you forth like gold tried by the fire? Will you let me remove the spots and blemishes that still remain? Will you let me burn up in you, your churches, and your ministry all that you built with your hands and not mine?

Surely, the world will see those who are mine and those who are not. They shall see those who said, “Lord, Lord have we not prophesied in your name, healed in your name...” from those who are really and genuinely mine. I am raising shepherds after my own heart like David. They will come from those that have been rejected and despised like David’s mighty men.

They will not be the most educated or noble ones, or those who boast of their gifts. They will be the true broken and humble servants of the Lord. I have hid them until now. I have kept them in the secret place for this moment of time in History. The day of their arising has come. Change has come. Change is here. It is a time of change. Will you embrace it? Will you be ready for it? For my kingdom is not of this world and never will be. My power is not of this world, but the very Word of God that I AM that I AM!

Will the Son of Man find faith on the earth when He returns? Will there be a people prepared for my Glory? Yes, yes and the time has come for them to come forth from the North, South, East and West? The day of my house being filled has come. The day of the highway and byways leaders has come, for those invited I swore in my wrath shall never taste my supper.

A divine choice has come. A divine day of choosing of “who is on the Lord’s side” is here. Will you be on the side of that which is dead or have a reputation of being alive, or will you be on the side of the living? Will you be on the side where goodness and mercy is, or on the side of the traditions of men that is killing my house?

Make no mistake, CHANGE IS HERE! Will you allow me to complete what I started in you? Will you cling on to the things of this world for dear life as you have done up to this day? Or will you let go and gain your spiritual life? The choice is yours! There is no stopping this day of change or transfiguration. It is here! My leaders will arise now with healing in their wings.

They will speak as ones you have never heard before with great authority and power of my Holy Spirit and you will never see again. They shall prophecy like you have never seen and not one of their words shall fall to the ground. For they are walking in the true authority I give and they are not self-appointed. I am jealous over my house and her condition. I have come once again to deliver them from their “religious” taskmasters, to bring them to the mountain of the Lord to worship me alone.

I will share my GLORY with no FLESH. NO FLESH SHALL GLORY IN MY SIGHT. I am coming to burn up all that is wood, hay and stubble in this new year, for this year you will begin to see the “fullness” of my Kingdom and the fullness of your King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

So get ready and put on the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness. Rejoice for your deliverance is at hand. No longer shall you be a powerless, spiritless people, but to those who hear my voice you shall be a Flame of Fire to the nations of the world as a witness of my Kingdom. My Kingdom come and my will be done on earth as it is heaven.

So prepare yourself for this moment in time. The time change has come. It will not be political, social or economic, but it will touch every place on the face of the earth as it does in every place in the depth of your heart.

The day of the clean hands and pure heart has come! Rejoice in the Lord always, and again I say rejoice, your redemption draws nigh!”

Beloved Readers, here the Word of the Lord! Pray over it for yourself and see if the Holy Spirit bares witness of this word to your heart. A change is here! A spiritual revolution is in our midst! The changing of the guard has begun as it did in the days of David and Saul. One present leadership is giving over to another “type” of leadership in the order of King David.

Will you embrace the change? Will you allow the Lord to bring this in your heart, your family, church, city and nation? Will you desire to have the Lord Jesus Christ as your King alone? Or will you want to keep a King like the rest of the nations like Saul?

I pray you will not be on the “wrong side” of history as God breaks forth this Omega Generation into existence. For it is here now! It may be just in a seed form, but it is here and it is going to grow and accelerate faster than anything you have ever seen. Even a “child” shall lead them the scripture says. I pray we all our ready and we do not love our “church, ministry or calling” more than we love God. I pray we will be able to lay it all down and allow the Lord to choose His present will for our lives. If we will our greatest days are ahead. If not you may find yourself fighting against the very hand of God.

Be blessed Beloved Readers through this Thanksgiving and Christmas season. Have a Happy New Year!
